

Live Action English INTERACTIVE

Talking about the future

An interactive listening activity

Interactive video

Total physical response on CD-Rom

Have you ever used interactive videos with students? It's an eye-opening experience to watch the enthusiasm of learners who drag a mop to the hand of the man in the picture above and watch him take it and start mopping the floor with it! Live Action English Interactive is wonderfully successful in exploiting the magic of technology while retaining a sound pedagogical base.

Very easy to use for teachers and students, Live Action English Interactive is for beginner to intermediate learners of English. It consists of 21 units which present vocabulary and grammar in the context of familiar activities.

Each activity is exploited using a series of exercises: students watch a video, check comprehension, interact with the video and read and write. Writing is interactively corrected: another unique feature.

Topics

- † Morning routine
- † Shopping
- † Going fishing
- † Playing music
- † Using a payphone
- † Making a table
- † Cleaning the house
- † Giving directions
- † Making soup
- † Sending a postcard
- † Planting a seed
- † Office worker!

Language Areas

- † Vocabulary
- † Listening
- † Reading
- † Writing

Technical

Pentium, Win 95/98/NT/2000/ME/XP, speakers or headphones. Mac OS 7.5/Power Mac.

"Not only my favorite CD-ROM... my students' favorite as well... a truly extraordinarily valuable resource in my ESL classroom."
Leslie E. Clark,
City College, San Francisco

This is the first thing I've seen that has got me interested in using computers in the classroom.
Elaine Barrett
Adult Education
San Diego Community College
District

Gorgeous program!
Denis Carvalho,
Hong Kong

Can we spend the night here? -pleaded a student in an evening class while using LAEI.

Thanks again for developing this software. The mix of movies, grammar, listening, and reading is excellent.

Kay Wade,
ESL Computer Lab Coordinator,
Berkeley Adult School